

6516207952.txt

I feel that as a paid subscriber to XM satellite radio that I am entitled to access to local traffic and weather broadcasts. I travel by automobile frequently to different cities along the east coast and having up to the minute access to this information that I pay for on a monthly basis is invaluable. I fully support XM satellite radio ability to transmit these broadcast in the future. I will be carefully monitoring my Congressional representatives vote in this matter.